Monday, July 31, 2016 Here's a super simple and very clean route for anyone new to climbing. Absolutely no chalk needed! Start up a slim crack on the right facing edge near the top of the route. Go right at the top and continue right past a fun little crimp- it's a really good crimp- and start up a wide crack to a tree and continue up to the big tree. Route: Left Hand Slump Crack (5.10b) You can easily do this route by combining the first 6 moves of: Most of the crimps on the route are near the tree and the route is about 7a/9a. The Crimps: Crimp #1: Crimp #2: Crimp #3: Crimp #4: Crimp #5: Crimp #6: The slog: Climb over to the tree and continue up past it on easier terrain for a bit.

Above the tree you will find the famous unique tree climbing move: essentially a muscle-up but a little easier.Q: Is it OK to use « J'ai besoin de reprendre... » instead of « ... de réparer... »? I'm wondering if I can use J'ai besoin de reprendre as a place-holder, like many people do for réparer: Quelle heure
