Alaska HootSuite eliminates the need for multiple email addresses by federating to the best email account. While being able to use your primary email address will eliminate downtime, you will need to maintain all your email accounts. HootSuite frees you from having to set up and maintain a multitude of email accounts. Problems A flood of emails may happen on a regular basis. Unlike a traditional CRM solution that has one email address, having multiple email addresses can make it difficult to manage multiple people on a project or customer at a time. HootSuite has one main email account and can integrate with multiple mail clients and SMS messaging. If a flood of emails happen, you can manage them all from one email account, whether those emails are coming from HootSuite or other apps and services. Compete may be slow to sign on. As a SaaS company, HootSuite operates mostly as a SMTP server. If your business is not using HootSuite as their primary business application, there will be delays while your connection to the internet is established.
